

Public Submission of Wildlife Samples For Disease / Parasite Investigation

Thank you for contributing crucial information to our disease surveillance research.

Alaska Department of Fish and Game
Wildlife Health and Disease Surveillance
1300 College Road
Fairbanks, Alaska 99701
Disease Reporting Phone: (907) 328-8354
E-mail: dfg.dwc.vet@alaska.gov

Submitter Information:

Today's Date _____
Your name _____
Address _____
City / Zip _____
Phone _____
E-mail _____

*If this submission involves a BITE / SCRATCH/ EXPOSURE TO SALIVA to a person or pet from a BAT, FOX, WOLF, COYOTE, LYNX or RIVER OTTER contact the Alaska Section of Epidemiology IMMEDIATELY:

Mon-Fri 8am-5pm: (907) 269-8000 After Hours: (800) 478-0084*

ADFG Staff Accepting Sample:

Name: _____ Area Office: _____ Phone: _____ Email: _____

My submission is:

Species _____ GMU w/ subunit _____ Specific Location (include nearest town) _____

Submission has been kept: Refrigerated Frozen Room temp Other: _____

This animal was:

- Found Already Dead
Date: _____
- Harvested/ Trapped
Date: _____
- Found Injured
Date: _____

Sample Type:

- Whole Carcass
- Parts. Please list tissues/organs submitted below:

- Parasite (other than a tick) from wildlife. Describe below:

Date of Death (if known): _____

Describe why you are submitting this today : Please note if there is a specific concern with your submission.

Write "Donation" if this is a normal specimen for training/teaching/research rather than exam/diagnosis:

Submission of a tick found on a person or pet :

Do NOT use this form. Use a Submit-a-Tick form. Following the directions mail the specimen directly to the Office of the State Veterinarian. 5251 Martin Luther King Dr Anchorage, AK 99507. (907) 375-8215. <https://dec.alaska.gov/eh/vet/ticks/submit-a-tick/>